

Postdoctoral Fellowship at Cira Center for Behavioral Health

Cira Center for Behavioral Health (CCBH) is a growing group practice located in Chicago's Loop looking to hire a full time Clinical Psychology Postdoctoral Fellow.

Clinical Work:

- Primary responsibilities will be in conducting intake assessments and providing individual, couple, family, and group psychotherapy with the age and gender spectrum (around 25 clients/week). Must be able to treat or open to treating (with supervision) individuals, children, adolescents, families, and couples.
- Due to COVID-19, all sessions are currently being conducted via Telehealth. However, the fellow will have the option to conduct virtual sessions from our Loop office. We expect to return to a hybrid (in-person and virtual) model as soon as it is safe to do so. Once back in the office, willing to split their time at both of our Chicago and Oak Park (TBD).
- An interest, experience, and/or basic knowledge about working with trauma survivors.
- Graduated with a doctorate in psychology (Ph.D. or Psy.D.).
- Willing to work at least 3 evenings OR 2 evenings and a Saturday or Sunday.
- Applicants who have experience in women's issues/health and/or trauma and/or are EMDR trained will be given special consideration.

Values Work:

- White therapists are required to engage in personal and internal antiracism work by reading books, podcasts, etc. and external antiracism work, including training courses, both in- and out-of-house, and in team discussions.
- Participate in at least one of our antiracist quarterly initiatives. Recent initiatives have focused on voter suppression and engagement, supporting BIPOC-owned business during COVID, Black maternal health, and Asian Americans and mental health.
- Therapists of color will have the option to meet regularly with the other therapists of color on the team, but these meetings are optional.

Team Work:

- Identifies as a Team Player and Problem Solver.
- Enjoys Supervision, Consultation and Collaboration.
- Is active on Slack, our internal communications platform, reading and responding to Teammates in a timely manner (for the most part, this replaces most email obligations).
- Steps up for volunteer events/positions as necessary (Holiday Giving Campaign, Diversity Presentations, etc).
- Excited to get to know their Teammates and spend time together at quarterly work social events.

Benefits:

- Fantastic location on Michigan Avenue across from Millennium Park. The Loop office is housed in an impeccable building with tons of great amenities (ALL SESSIONS ARE CURRENTLY BEING CONDUCTED VIRTUALLY  However, the fellow will have the option to conduct virtual sessions from our Loop office.).
- You will be an employee of CCBH, which includes benefits like PTO, major medical Blue Cross Blue Shield insurance, 401K contributions, and compensation towards continuing education training.
- All caseload building, scheduling, and billing are taken care of for you.
- All marketing is taken care of, which includes but is not limited to, a Psychology Today profile, business cards, brochures, postcards, and all other marketing material.
- A paper-free existence! Everything we do is electronic, and documentation is very minimal.
- Weekly individual supervision.
- Weekly meetings with the Team.
- Opportunity to supervise a graduate student.
- A highly collaborative, relational, and fun working environment.
- Possibility for a full-time position upon completion of the fellowship.
